ELECTION – 2023

OPBRWA/006/LH/REV-1
25th December, 2023

ALHAMDULILLAH, Election Process that had started with the General Body Meeting on 15th October, satisfactorily concluded with the announcement of results on 24th December, 2023.

The Election Committee wish to bring it on record that this time voters' turnout was the highest ever which shows their growing interest in the community affairs. The Election Committee is grateful to both panels for maintaining peace and harmony throughout the process and accepting results with a sportsman spirit. Another amazing feature of the election was the positive and constructive role of polling agents of both panels who instead of creating hurdles and raising frivolous issues as happened in the past events, whole heartedly cooperated with the Election Committee for smooth flow of voting.

Breakup of the votes, registered & polled is as under:

• Number of registered voters	: 406.
• Number of eligible voters	: 381
• Number of votes polled	: 364.
• Number of residents who voted for the complete Panel (ORP)	: 132
• Number of residents who opted for the complete Panel (B)	: 175
• Number of voters who opted to pick & choose	: 50
• Number of votes rejected	: 7
• Percentage of votes polled (364/381)	: 95%
• Number of Proxies	: 72
• Residents who could not vote being in default	: 25

Individual contestants secured votes as per following table:

The Election Committee apologizes with those, particularly ladies, who were denied to vote as proxies, because of an anomaly in the Constitution. The incoming Association is urged to amend all objectionable clauses of the Constitution, to make it more inclusive and in line with the changing needs of the electorate. The Election Committee also takes this opportunity to request those who for any reason whatsoever, are withholding their monthly payments, to clear their arrears ASAP as the funds they contribute, go back for the collective benefit of the neighborhood.
